Woman, However, Escaped, Without Sustaining Any Serious Injury.

C. Paumie, proprietor of the Parisian Dye Works on west First South stret, was thrown from a runaway team this boon, at the intersection of West Temple and Second South streets, and suffered a broken fibula bone in the right leg. J. M. Abernathy and a woman who were in the conveyance were also thrown into the street, but escaped in-

It was a two horse team belonging to Fex's livery stable, and was taking voters to the polls. The young man in charge, was driving down West Temple street, with Mr. Paumie on the front seat with him, when the driver gave the left horse a cut with the whip. This started the horse, and the other was not slow in joining his mate in an escapade. The driver claims that he would have stopped the horses but for Paumie's catching hold of the reins and interfering with him. As it was, this interference, the driver says, steered the horses directly into the pole at the eventer of the street intersection. The collision let the team free from the rig which was overturned, and threw the occupants unceremoniously into the roadway. Paumie's leg struck the pole and was broken. He was carried into Hill's drug store where Dr. W. S. Ellerbeck ascertained the nature of his injuries and sent him home to be cared for. He will be laid up for several weeks. front seat with him, when the driver

POSTOFFICE RUSH.

Heaviest Busy in History of Salt Lake is Predicted.

The postoffice is already laboring with the holiday rush, and present indications are that the heaviest business in the history of the office will be done this month. There is an especially marked inmonth. There is an especially marked increase in the money order and registry departments, and a great deal of money is being sent to foreign countries. Another notable feature of the rush is the advent of periodicals, which are being sent into this state in greater numbers than ever. This is making it the more enerous for the carriers, who are already bent down under the ever-increasing load. BOARDER REPORTED.

Landlady Who Reads the "News" Writes the Board of Health.

The secretary of the state board of health is convinced that the "News" is widely read. Some time ago, it was published in this paper that the state board would examine free, specimens of sputa from persons supposed to have tuberculosis. A reply and sample was received from Norway later, as was noted in the "News;" also a specimen from Raymond, Canada, the sputa in the latter case being found free from bacilli. And now comes a communication from Mrs. Lily De Wolf, proprieto; of a boardinghouse containing a specimen of the sputa of a boarder who, she fears has consumption, Secy. Beatty examined the specimer and finding it a clear case of tubercu-loses, so notified Mrs. De Wolf, giving also the instructions necessary for the protection of her boarder and the rest of her household. But for this offer of the state board being known this patient would have continued to enlanger quite a number of people before his real condition was discovered.

The next morning Jailer Kimball was to see Sullivan nursing a badly burned face, and for a time it looked like the man would lose an eye. His face was burned to a blister. After much questioning he told his

He said he had the coffee in an airtight can, and with the use of some paper he made a fire in his cell to heat the coffee. BIG GAMBLERS PLEADED GUILTY.

Richard A. Canfield and David Burklin, Propeietor and Manager

MOST EXCLUSIVE HOUSE

In All the Country-They Did So in Order to Protect Their Patrous.

New York, Dec. 7 .- Richard A. Canfield and David Bucklin, respectively proprietor and manager of what was said to be the most exclusive gambling house in this country, were indicted by the grand jury today on the charge of maintaining a gambling house at No. 5, East Forty-fourth street. They were then taken before Judge Cumming and pleaded guilty to the indictments.

Canfield's house is situated next door to the city's most fashionable restaurant and all his patronage came from the wealthiest men in the city. For years it was impossible to obtain evidence against him because no one was admitted to the house except persons known personally to Canfield or Bucklin or vouched for by one of the regular patrons of the house. Dist. Atty. Jerome several years ago began a determined effort to secure the necessary evidence and to this end he subpoenaed Jesse Lewisohn, a member of a prominent business firm, and called upon Mr. Lewisohn to answer whether he had ever gambled in Canfield's house. Lewisohn refused to ansiet. field's house. Lewisohn refused to answer on the ground that he was not required to give a reply which might tend to incriminate or degrade him-self. A special act was passed by the legislature to provide immunity to witnesses who might testify as Mr. Lewisohn had been asked to do. Still. however, Mr. Lewisohn declined to answer on the ground the special act was unconstitutional. He fought the case to the court of appeals, the high-ost in the state, and resently that court handed down a decision sustaining the act and holding that Mr. Lewisohn should testify. Shortly afterwards it was given out that Mr. Canfield, in order to protect those who had visited his house, would plend guilty. Canfield and Bucklin were fined $1,000 each by Judge Cowing. The recommendation for this action was made by the district attorney. Both men paid the fines.

sisted in New York.

New York, Dec. 7.—Charitable institutions in this city report that never before have they been called upon to assist so great a number of unemployed men. According to statistics at the municipal lodging house at First avenue nearly 40 per cent more idle men needed help in November than was the case a year ago During that month 7.787 persons, 90 per cent being men, were cared for. The condition is attributed to the completion of the subway—not so much on account of the completion of the completion of the construction work, which, of course, threw men out of employment, as to the fame of the tunnel, which has attracted thousands to New York in the belief that they could obtain at once jucrative employment.

INDIANS' NEEDS. Those of Red Men in California Attended to.

San Diego, Cal., Dec. 7 .- The present needs of the Indians upon the government reservation have been attended to. The committee which went to distribute the money and supplies donated for relief of the destitute, has returned and reports that 160 of the Indians had been taken care of. Within a few days additional clothing will be distributed, besides more provisions and money that have been collected. Half a ton of supplies were sent from Pasadena besides a check for $20 from the ladies' Missionary society of this city. A check for $300 was sent by the Sequoia league. There is now sufficient grain in the warehouse at Campo to plant all the Indians' and. At present the most urgent need is for more bedding to nake the redmen comfortable during the winter. The Sequoia league has undertaken to distribute such rations as may be needed from now until harvest time and the indications are that they will get the seed into the ground in time for the winter rains. The nights in the neighborhood of the reservation are now quite cold.
